

From the Desk of Emma

January Edition

Dear Burns Fans,

My name is Emma, and I am the newest addition to the Burns family. I know you are looking for an in-depth, insider's look into the life, charity, and artwork of Ron Burns, or as I know him...Dad. So, look no further than this newsletter, put together by yours truly! I'll keep you updated with all of the newest Burns news each month.

BITS ABOUT BURNS

Discover new things about "America's Favorite Animal Artist"

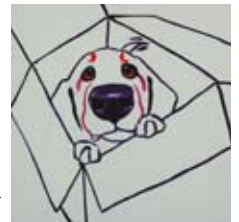

As Artist in Residence for The Humane Society of the United States, Ron was asked to paint a dog bowl for a fund raiser in Chicago. The fund raiser's aim is to help stop dog fighting, a cause which I think we all believe in. Personally, I couldn't eat out of this bowl, it's too beautiful!

WET PAINT!

See what's on Ron's canvas TODAY!

On Ron's canvas today is this boxed in puppy. I know from experience how many empty boxes are left laying around after the holidays, but I never wanted to play in one like this little guy. I would rather dive into a bag of dog food than an empty box, but to each his own I guess!

FEATURED RELEASE

Each month we will feature a new original or limited edition that is unique, and explain why it's important!

Our new release for the New Year is a very limited little lady called "Madeline." Normally, limited editions are in runs of 95, but this beauty will only have 25 editions. She's all nose, ears and heart!

Madeline

Limited Edition on Canvas
Size: 24 x 18
Pre-release Price: $950

Sincerely,

Emma

P.S. Emma Fun Fact -

Dad's been reading this book lately, "The Dog Bible," by some lady named Tracie Hotchner. In there, she tells readers that humans should be the leader of the pack and make us dogs sit before we leave the house for walks. Dad's started to train me to do this. I would rather just dart out the front door... maybe I should hide that book. Hum...
