THE Big STORY

Dallas Puts Their Trust in Ron

Ron went to Dallas, Texas in April to be the Guest of Honor at a ceremony to introduce the Nations First Ever Animal District. Dallas Mayor, Tom Leppert, awarded Ron a Special Recognition plaque from the City of Dallas honoring him for all his philanthropic works.

At the center of the event was Ron's portrait of Minnie, a rescued dog from a local Dallas animal shelter.

Ron was inspired to paint Minnie, because she had endured being surrendered by her first family just after having a litter of puppies, and then refused to eat for nine days. Eventually, she came around however, and now lives a healthy and very happy life!

The event, hosted by Debbie Denom, was a great success as the masses came out to support the Dallas Animal

District and to of course meet Ron, and see his artwork in person.

The auction for the original "Minnie the Star" is going on right now! If you're interested in bidding please visit her page on Ron's website: <http://www.ronburns.com/minniesthestar.html>. There are also limited editions of "Minnie the Star" available from your authorized Burns gallery!
